From the Chicago Record From his farm Judge Bryan was in the babit of supplying the preachers corn, hay and vegetables free of cost. He also kept the country supplied with venison from the herd of deer which he kept for many years. He built a big smokehouse in the rear of his grounds. One night, unseen himself, he saw a man emerge from the smokehouse with a side of pork on his shoulder. He recognized the intruder, but said nothing.

A week afterward the fellow approached him, saying: "Judge, I understand you had some meat stolen from your smokehouse?"

The old Judge raised his hand deprecatingly, and said: "Sh! No one on earth knows any
